PRESS RELEASE

exground filmfest 24: A perfect frame

A WALL IS A SCREEN // Reading Oliver Polak // Parties and Lounges

Between November 11 and 20, 2011, exground filmfest not only presents highlights from the international film scene, but also a manifold framework program.

A first highlight the cinematic city stroll A WALL IS A SCREEN on the evening of Friday, November 11. The house walls of downtown Wiesbaden turn into silver screens for short films from all genres. Zero point is 9pm in front of the Caligari FilmBühne. Destination of the cinematic stroll is the Kulturpalast, where at 10pm the opening party with DJ Dr. Love will kick off.

GIVE US YOUR TRASH! is the traditional motto of the exground-Gong-Show which will take place on Monday, November 14, at 10pm in the Kulturpalast. Short films of up to 10 minutes length can be submitted by everyone between 8pm and 9pm right on location. All productions that are not „gonged out“ by the jury before they end will be rated on a ten-point-scale. The winner film receives the golden exground cucumber and 50 Euros prize money.

In line with the country focus on Israel, Oliver Polak will hold a reading on the bestseller of the same name, ICH DARF DAS, ICH BIN JUDE! (I AM ALLOWED TO DO THAT, I AM JEWISH!) on Thursday, November 17, at 8pm in the Kulturpalast. Subtle and full of humour, Polak comments on his mother's strict Jewish rules and – using tons of black humour – his “double circumcision”. Polak's performance in the stand-up show JUD SÜSS-SAUER received the Kulturnews award „Best Entertainment 2010“.

The festival center in the Caligari FilmBühne invites you to relax with a regular happy hour and a soccer table. From Sunday, November 13, through Friday, November 18, at 10pm respectively, exground filmfest offers lounges with changing DJs. The karaoke night on Saturday, November 19, at 11pm in the foyer, has cult character already. For the festive closing, DJ Monaco Bertrand invites you to dance on Sunday, November 20, as of 9pm, in the Caligari FilmBühne.
