

Wiesbaden, June 15, 2015

PRESS RELEASE

exground filmfest 28: enter your film until July 1st, 2015

New country in focus Greece // More than EUR 16.000 in cash and non-cash awards

Renowned exground filmfest will take place for the 28th time this year. November 13-22, 2015 Wiesbaden cinemas Caligari FilmBühne, Murnau Filmtheater and Kulturpalast will show ca. 200 independently produced short and feature length films from all over the world. A special focus this year is the versatile and very interesting Greek cinematography.

Deadline for film entries is July 1, 2015; the entry form can be downloaded from our homepage www.exground.com. Filmmakers can also enter by uploading their works onto www.reelport.com. Our entry form also has detailed information on entering films in German and English. For further questions mail to info@exground.com.

Next to films in our sections American Independents, Made in Germany, International as well as Focus Greece exground filmfest presents a number of competitions, endowed with cash and non-cash awards of more than 16.000 EUR.

exground filmfest is supported by the state capital of Wiesbaden, the Hessian Film Fund and the Hessian Ministry for Science and Arts.

Press officer:

Gerald Pucher, cell (01 77) 4 45 60 68, presse@exground.com